the following is an abbreviated catechism of martin luther's teachings he was a german priest theologian author and hymn writer a former augustinian friar he is best known as the seminal figure in the protestant reformation and as the namesake of lutheranism

by direction of the evangelical lutheran synod of pennsylvania the following explanation of luther's small catechism is herewith submitted to the ministers teachers and congregations of our church for their friendly examination and use it was deemed that to postpone the publication of a stereotype edition and to send forth this little volume in its present provisional form in order to afford an opportunity for the discovery of any imperfections which may be pointed out by an actual use and trial of the book to elicit the expression of wishes in regard to any changes that may be desired to reach a definite conclusion in reference to its adaptation to the want it was intended to meet and to render possible the introduction of such changes as may appear necessary the object steadily kept in view in its preparation is sufficiently indicated by the title it is the aim of this explanation to render luther s small catechism peculiar and remarkable for its wealth of matter and condensed form still more profitable for practical use it was our constant endeavor not to lead the mind away from luther s master piece but into a better comprehension and appreciation of it but to enter more deeply into luther s catechism is at the same time to enter more deeply into the holy scriptures the word of god the rock from which the stones with which luther built were hewn the careful selection of proof texts which are here presented as the bible s testimony to our confession of faith and which together with the text of luther s catechism should as far as possible be impressed upon the memory of the young during their school years and before they become members of the catechetical class cannot fail to enhance the value of our little book those who as teachers in our church have gained some experience in catechetical instruction will not fail to observe that the various wants of our church and the differences of age knowledge and capacity have not been lost sight of in the preparation of this hand book so that it may be used profitably by every conscientious minister teacher and head of a family in the religious instruction of younger and older more or less advanced pupils both prior to and during the catechetical instruction preparatory to confirmation it was not however our intention to relieve the teacher from that necessary preparation which he should always make before meeting his pupils this is the proper place to make mention of the helps which have been used by us with a grateful recognition of their merits but also with a constant regard to their deficiencies and our own peculiar wants in addition to a number of earlier and later labors of this kind we would specially mention caspari s admirable explanation of the catechism which incorporates the best results of earlier labors in this department its vigorous popular style and original independent treatment of the subject are inimitable and its fulness of thought is in the highest degree instructive and suggestive we have made a grateful use of it at times even word for word without however surrendering our independence or forgetting our duty and so may this little volume go forth into the world finding many faithful readers and students and charitable judges and accomplish much good through the blessing of god and to his glory in the name of the evangelical lutheran synod of pennsylvania and adjacent states w j mann g f krotel philadelphia june 25 1863 martin luther s large catechism is a popular summary of basic christian doctrine written to aid pastors and bible study leaders in teaching the small catechism which was written by martin luther in 1529 in question and answer format explores the six chief parts of christian doctrine the ten commandments the apostles creed the Lord's prayer the sacrament of holy baptism confession and the sacrament of the altar also included are daily prayers a table of duties for Christians in their various callings in life and a guide for Christians to use as they prepare to receive holy communion Luther intended the catechism to be a prayer book for individuals and families and a powerful tool for the Christian life because it provides a brief clear summary of God's word on the essentials of the Christian faith

The very form of a catechism implies that questions are to be asked by the instructor and answers given by the pupil that there is to be committing to memory and reciting of that which is so committed Luther in his preface to the catechism strongly insists on the necessity of using precisely the same form of words and going over them again and again until they are both well committed to memory and well understood it is to be feared from the frequent expression catechetical lectures that strict and proper catechisation has been somewhat and in some places supplanted by lectures which become a pouring in process in which the instructor is active and the pupil passive thus the real interest of teaching is lost and the result is unsatisfactory whether we consider the heads or the hearts of the pupils he is no catechist who merely lectures on the topics presented by the catechism the object of teaching is learning and the process is double teacher and taught each having his part to do and neither being able to do the part of the other when therefore the latter is attempted there can be only failure

Can you quote the ten commandments by heart how about your friends your children why would you even want to here's an interesting fact according to some people you can literally tell if people know their catechism including the ten commandments of course by the way they carry themselves had you ever heard that some swear that's true and frankly I wouldn't be surprised when Martin Luther wanted his answer to the question what does God require of us he could think of no better answer than the ten commandments for Luther they proclaimed the inviolable way of God and our total need for God's grace because none of us can obey them perfectly that's a pretty good formula for carrying oneself well isn't it you know the right thing to do you seek to do it and then you humbly seek God's grace for the times you can't do it this type of approach keeps you focused yet humble of course we all know how rare that is so I started wondering why that might be even in the church in my pastoral ministry I've found that while many people can remember the Lord's prayer if only because they learned it when playing football in school no joke and some can remember the apostle's creed getting the ten commandments right and in order and if you can't remember them you're not going to meditate on them or use them to guide your prayer or use them to prompt confession let alone consciously live by them the question of course is what can be done about that that's when I decided to try to make meditation on the ten commandments fun simple little games that help adults or kids jump start their ability to master the ten commandments in Luther's small catechism I've found that if learning especially for adults isn't fun it's probably not going to happen unless some merciless task master is standing over people but when that happens they won't come back a second time these games and activities let you engage the ten commandments in a way that that's interesting it's not like a boring classroom it's like an adventure something fun to master kids and adults need a break from the lecture this kind of break lets them review learn the material from different perspectives and keep immersing themselves in the study of the ten commandments while making it a game listen our goal is to have students take the ten commandments with them to inspire their prayers to equip them in times of struggle to be the kind of biblical summary that the holy spirit uses in their lives to live faithfully in the world around them if we believe the commandments as part of catechism give our students an advantage over people who never learn them we owe it to ourselves and our students to do everything possible to help them make it their own the tool to help you do that is the ten commandments from martin luther s small catechism word search activity book in it you ll find a series of word searches word scrambles cryptograms double puzzles missing vowels you ll get the ten commandments according to lutheran usage the ten commandments in multiple game formats so that you can review the commandments in a variety of formats the key to mastery usable with any english version of martin luther s small catechism ready to improve your mastery of the ten commandments let s get started page after page of tools for mastering the ten commandments you ll have hours of fun while profitably internalizing the god s commands order now t
